2021 Fall Exchange Student Application Guidelines

The Dharma Drum Institute of Liberal Arts (DILA) exchange student program is open primarily to domestic and overseas universities and institutions that have signed cooperation agreements with DILA. The goal of this program is to expand the student's learning opportunities and international horizons and enhance Chinese language proficiency. Participants will not only interact with local students, international students and faculty, but also deepen their understanding of our school and Taiwan, in addition to becoming an active element in contemporary international society.

1. Study Duration

- Applicants for one semester: September 2021 ~ January 2022.
- Applicants for one academic year (two semesters): September 2021 to June 2022.

Note:

- i. Exchange students of local and foreign schools must have an equivalent level of education (for example, those studying for a bachelor's degree may only apply for DILA's bachelor's program).
- ii. Exchange length must be at least one semester and no more than one academic year.

2. Application Deadline: ~ April 30, 2021

3. Eligibility

- 1) The applicant's current area of study and degree level must correspond to the department of our institute that is being applied for.
- 2) Chinese language proficiency: the applicant should meet one of the following requirements: -
 - i. Equivalent to CEFR language proficiency indicator A1 (entry level) in Chinese language proficiency.
 - ii. Formal Chinese language training in the home country for more than one year.

4. Required Documents (PLEASE send scanned files in PDF format):

(The OIA will not accept delayed applications or incomplete application documents)

- 1) Exchange student application form (Appendix 1).
- 2) Photos (passport size attached to the application form).
- 3) Passport.
- 4) Certificate of study.
- 5) Study plan.
- 6) Recommendation letter (University Professor).
- 7) Chinese language proficiency test transcript.
